Crowe Horwath International

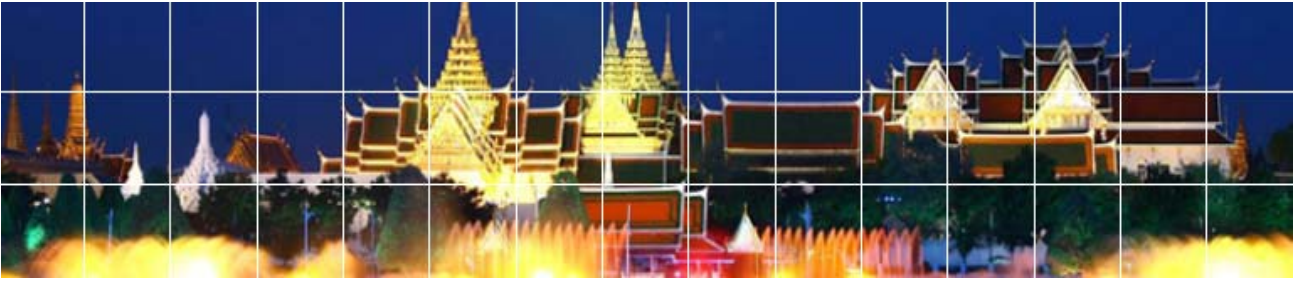

Crowe Horwath International is among the 10 largest global networks of independent accounting and advisory services firms, with more than 140 independent accounting and advisory services firms with 560 offices and 26,250 partners and staffs in more than 100 countries around the world. It offers a broad spectrum of professional services including accounting, auditing, tax, and consulting.

While each member firm assumes responsibility for its professional services, common operating standards for international projects have been developed and assignments are monitored continuously through a system of quality controls. This assures that each member firm is able to meet the high standards of practice and commitment to client service that Crowe Horwath International has established.

Crowe Horwath International is driven by a single purpose: helping its clients, to succeed in any market, from local to global. Through each link in the chain, they gain immediate access to commercial intelligence in all the key markets of the world. Member firms put their extensive local knowledge to work to offer expert guidance through the complexities of cross-border operations for all of the network's clients.

Putting the client's needs first also dictates the network's energetic and supportive approach. While national business cultures shape the nature of this support in each territory, the company's international offices all work towards the same end: achieving tangible success for their clients. This fusion of personal service and hard, commercial advice is of particular value to medium-sized and growing companies with the drive to enter new markets. All clients, large and small, benefit from the highest level of expertise developed to help businesses capitalize on market opportunities.
